Please note the following mission statement from this brochure:

ST. JAMES HOUSE, a ministry of Saint John Orthodox Cathedral in Eagle River, Alaska, provides a one-year residential program where young, single people live in an extended-family setting and become better prepared to live in the world as faithful Orthodox Christian men and women. This is accomplished primarily through evening studies, household work projects, and participation in the liturgical and community life of St. John Cathedral, as well as their daily interaction with one another.

As you re-read this statement, what do you hope to gain from your year at the Saint James House? _____

_____
_____

The term of residency at the Saint James House runs from mid-August, 2009 to May 31, 2010. Can you arrive in Alaska and move in by mid-August, 2009? _____

Is there any reason why you would NOT be able to stay the whole year, through May 31, 2010? If so, please describe:

The overseers of the House or one of the priests at the Cathedral will contact you after receiving this application to see if you have any further questions about the Saint James House. They will ask you at that time about any special struggles you may have (such as alcohol or drug use, disabilities, etc.), personal challenges, and the goals you hope to achieve during your time of residence in the Saint James House. Shortly after this interview, you will receive notice of whether or not you have been accepted as a resident for the coming year. Please sign below and return this application to:
