And the Days Following

~~~~~

O Apostle John, speaker of Deity, the beloved of Christ our God, hasten to deliver your people powerless in speech, for He on Whose bosom you lean accepts you as an intercessor. Beseech Him, therefore, to disperse the darkness of ignorance and pray for peace and great mercies to be shown upon us.

THE SYNAXARION

Sisoës the Great of Egypt – July 6

On July 6, in the Holy Orthodox Church, we commemorate our Righteous Father Sisoës the Great of Egypt.

Verses

*When he died, this was written upon the stone:
Behold Sisoës, the instrument of the Divine Spirit.
On the sixth, Sisoës went blameless from earth to Heaven.*

Sisoës was a disciple of St. Anthony the Great. Imposing difficult ascetic labors on himself in the wilderness for 60 years, Sisoës humbled himself so much that he became meek and guileless as a lamb. God endowed Sisoës with abundant grace so that he was able to heal the sick, drive out unclean spirits and resurrect the dead. Sisoës taught those who visited him: “Regardless of what way temptation comes to man, a man should give himself to the will of God and to recognize that temptation occurred because of his sins. If something good happens, it should be said that it happened according to God’s Providence.” Sisoës died peacefully in extreme old age in 429.

On this day, we also commemorate the Apostles Archippos, Philemon and Onesimos of the Seventy; Martyrs Lucy the Virgin, Rex the Imperial Vicar in Campania and 24 others with them; and the Martyrs Apollonius, Epimachus and Alexander.

By the intercessions of Your Saints, O Christ our God, have mercy on us. Amen.
