Tone 8

[Commemoration - Innocent of Alaska - Oct 6]

GREAT VESPERS - SATURDAY EVENING

DEACON: Bless, Father.

PRIEST: Blessed is our God always now and ever and unto ages of ages.

PEOPLE: Amen.

“Come Let Us Worship...”

Psalm 104

Bless the Lord, O my soul! O Lord You are very great: / You are clothed with honor and majesty, / Who cover Yourself with light as with a garment, / Who stretch out the heavens like a curtain.

He lays the beams of His upper chambers in the waters, / Who makes the clouds His chariot, / Who walks on the wings of the wind, / Who makes His angels spirits, His ministers a flame of fire.

You Who laid the foundations of the earth, / so that it should not be moved forever, / You covered it with the deep as with a garment; / the waters stood above the mountains.

At Your rebuke they fled; / at the voice of Your thunder they hastened away. / They went up over the mountains; they went down into the valleys, / to the place which You founded for them.

You have set a boundary that they may not pass over, / that they may not return to cover the earth. / He sends the springs into the valleys, / which flow among the hills.

They give drink to every beast of the field; / the wild donkeys quench their thirst. / By them the birds of the heavens have their habitation; / they sing among the branches.

He waters the hills from His upper chambers; / the earth is satisfied with the fruit of Your works.

He causes the grass to grow for the cattle, / and vegetation for the service of man, / that he may bring forth food from the earth, / and wine that makes glad the heart of man, oil to make his face shine, / and bread which strengthens man's heart.

The trees of the Lord are full of sap, / the cedars of Lebanon which He planted, / where the birds make their nests; / the stork has her home in the fir trees.

The high hills are for the wild goats; / the cliffs are a refuge for the rock badgers.
He appointed the moon for the seasons; / the sun know its going down. / You made darkness, and it is night, / in which all the beasts of the forest creep about.

The young lions roar after their prey, / and seek their food from God. / When the sun arises, they gather together / and lie down in their dens.

Man goes out to his work / and to his labor until the evening. / O Lord, how manifold are Your works! / In wisdom You have made them all.

The earth is full of Your possessions / – this great and wide sea, / in which are innumerable teeming things, / living things both small and great.

There the ships sail about and there is that Leviathan / which You have made to play there. / These all wait for You, / that You may give them their food in due season.

What You give them they gather in; / You open Your hand, they are filled with good. / You hide Your face, they are troubled; / You take away their breath, they die and return to their dust.

You send forth Your Spirit, they are created; / and You renew the face of the earth. / May the glory of the Lord endure forever; / may the Lord rejoice in His works.

He looks on the earth, and it trembles; / He touches the hills, and they smoke.

I will sing to the Lord as long as I live; / I will sing praise to my God while I have my being. / May my meditation be sweet to Him; / I will be glad in the Lord.

May sinners be consumed from the earth, / and the wicked be no more. / Bless the Lord, O my soul! / Praise the Lord!

The sun knows its going down. / You make darkness and it is night. / O Lord, how manifold are Your works! / In wisdom You have made them all.

READER: Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.

PEOPLE: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Glory to You, O God. (3x)

O Lord, I Cry...” – Tone 8

Opening Psalm Verses - Psalm 141:1, 2 (LXX 140)

O Lord, I cry out to You, hear me! Hear me, O Lord. O Lord, I cry out to You, hear me. Give ear to my voice when I cry out unto You. Hear me, O Lord.

Let my prayer be set before You as incense, and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice. Hear me, O Lord.

Set a guard, O Lord over my mouth; keep watch o’er the door of my lips.

Do not incline my heart to any evil thing, to practice wicked works with men who work iniquity; and do not let me eat of their delicacies.

Let the righteous strike me; it shall be a kindness, and let him reprove me; it shall be as excellent oil. Let not my head refuse it, for still my prayer is against the deeds of the wicked.

Their judges are overthrown by the sides of the cliff and they hear my words for they are sweet. Our bones are scattered at the mouth of the grave, as when one plows and breaks up the earth.

But my eyes are upon You, O God the Lord; in You I take refuge; do not leave my soul destitute.

Keep me from the snares which they have laid for me, and from the traps of the workers of iniquity. Let the wicked fall into their own nets, while I escape safely.

Psalm 142 (LXX 141)

I cry out to the Lord with my voice; with my voice to the Lord I make my supplication.

I pour out my complaint before Him; I declare before Him my trouble.

When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then You knew my path. In a way in which I walk they have secretly set a snare for me.

Look on my right hand and see, for there is no one who acknowledges me; refuge has failed me; no one cares for my soul.

I cried out to You, O Lord. I said, “You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living.

Attend to my cry, for I am brought very low; deliver me from my persecutors for they are stronger than I.”

Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise Your name.

(Tone 8) – Resurrection

We offer to You, O Christ, our evening song and reasonable service. For You willed to have mercy on us by Your Resurrection!

The righteous shall surround me for You shall deal bountifully with me.

Lord, Lord, do not cast me away from Your face. For You willed to have mercy on us by the Resurrection!

Psalm 130 (LXX 129)

Out of the depths I have cried to You, O Lord; Lord, hear my voice!

Rejoice, O holy Zion: Mother of the churches, the abode of God! For you were the first to receive remission of sins by the Resurrection!

Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications.

The Word of God the Father, begotten before the ages, in the latter times willed to be incarnate of the Virgin and endured crucifixion unto death. He has saved mortal man by His Resurrection!

If You, Lord, should mark iniquities, O Lord, who could stand? But there is forgiveness with You, that You may be feared.

(Tone 4) – Charitina

You were named Charitina, which means joy and grace. You joyously departed to the bridal chamber of heaven, where you found the life you desired. You bravely endured torments of the sharpest pain, O virgin martyr of many crowns.

I wait for the Lord, my soul waits, and in His word I do hope.

O martyr of many struggles, all-holy virgin martyr Charitina, you endured the braking of your jaws, in return you shattered the jaws of the lions. When you courageously suffered the pulling out of your nails, you pulled out the rage of deceptive idolatry. When they cast you into the depths of the sea, you drowned all the perversity of the enemy.

My soul waits for the Lord more than those who watch for the morning, I say more than those who watch for the morning. O Israel, hope in the Lord;

After your blessed end, when you were cast into the sea, O glorious virgin martyr Charitina, your father recovered your precious body, and filled with tears and admiration, he cried out, “O my sacred child, and my beloved daughter, the torments of martyrdom have filled you with grace and beauty! You have fulfilled the promise of your name, which means joy and grace. It prefigured and foretold the grace of God which shone on you.”

For with the Lord there is mercy, and with Him is abundant redemption. And He shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

(Tone 2) – Innocent

With what crowns of praise shall we adorn the wise apostle of our land? Saint Innocent, Apostle to America came boldly to enlighten an island people, who were sitting in darkness and ignorance. He planted there the Orthodox faith with the radiant Gospel of salvation! He brought them great mercy from Christ our God.

Psalm 117 (LXX 116)

O, praise the Lord, all you Gentiles! Laud Him, all you peoples!

With what songs of praise shall we now sing of Saint Innocent, our wondrous teacher wise in God? As the first archpastor to rule our land, he taught us by his words and deeds the way we must go to attain to the glorious kingdom, which was won and promised to us by Christ our God, Who grants us great mercy!

For His merciful kindness is great toward us, and the truth of the Lord endures forever.

With what songs of virtue shall we praise our Father Innocent? In the distant reaches of Alaska and Siberia, he brought heathen worship to an end by his word. Bound in chains of obedience to the will of God, like the holy apostle Paul, he brought comfort to the faithful in the land of Russia who through his prayers and teaching receive great mercy from Christ our God!

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit:

(Tone 2) – Innocent

O Saint Innocent, Apostle to America, truly the Lord guided you along paths of many labors, through many lands, to many peoples and to enlighten a multitude of hearts. You guided and counseled a multitude of souls down the narrow path that alone leads to the Kingdom of Heaven.

Now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

(Tone 8) – Resurrection

The King of the Heavens, out of love for man, has appeared on earth and lived among men. For He Who has taken flesh of the pure Virgin, and after assuming it, He came forth from her. He is one Son, two in natures, but not two persons. Therefore, proclaiming Him as truly perfect God and perfect man, we confess Christ our God. Beseech Him, O Mother, who knew not wedlock, to have mercy on our souls.

An Excerpt from the Seventh Prayer

PRIEST: O Master, Bestower of all good things, may we, being moved to compunction on our beds, call to remembrance Your holy name in the night, that enlightened by meditation on Your commandments, we may rise in joyfulness of soul to glorify Your goodness, offering up prayers and supplications to Your tender love for our own sins and for those of all Your people, whom You visit in mercy, through the intercessions of the holy Theotokos.

For You are a good God and love mankind, and unto You we ascribe glory: to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

PEOPLE: Amen.

PRIEST: Peace be to all.

PEOPLE: And to your spirit.

The Prayer with Heads Bowed

DEACON: Let us bow our heads to the Lord.

PEOPLE: To You, O Lord.

PRIEST: O Lord, our God, Who bowed the heavens and came down for the salvation of mankind, look upon Your servants and Your inheritance; for to You, the fearful Judge, Who love mankind, have Your servants bowed their heads, and submissively inclined their necks, not awaiting help from men, but entreating Your mercy and looking confidently for Your salvation. Guard them at all times, both during this present evening and in the approaching night, from every enemy, from all adverse powers of the devil, and from vain thoughts and evil imaginations.

Blessed and glorified be the might of Your kingdom: of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

PEOPLE: Amen.

Aposticha: Tone 8

Descending from heaven to ascend the Cross, the eternal Life has come for death—
to raise the fallen, to enlighten those in darkness! *

O Jesus, our Savior and Illuminator, glory to You.

The Lord is King, He is clothed with majesty. The Lord is clothed with strength and has girded Himself.

We glorify Christ, Who rose from the dead.
He accepted the human body and soul, and freed both from suffering.
His most pure soul descended to hell, which He spoiled; *
and His holy body did not see corruption in the tomb.
He is the redeemer of our souls! *
O Lord, glory to You!

For He established the world which shall not be shaken.

In psalms and songs we glorify
Your Resurrection from the dead, O Christ!
By it, You have freed us from the tortures of hell, *
and as God have granted us eternal life and great mercy.

Holiness adorns Your house, O Lord, forever.

O Master of all,
incomprehensible Creator of heaven and earth,
by Your suffering on the Cross *
You have gained for me freedom from passions.
Accepting burial and arising in glory,
You resurrected Adam with Yourself by Your almighty hand.
Glory to Your rising on the third day, *
for by it You have granted us eternal life and cleansing of sins, O only-compassionate One.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit:

(Tone 6) Innocent

In mortal danger from a storm at sea, O Saint Innocent, you looked to St. Herman of Alaska, Northstar of the Church of Christ, and through his prayers found grace and deliverance. *
With him now intercede for our souls.

Now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.

(Tone 6) – Resurrection

My Maker and Redeemer, Christ the Lord, was born of you, O most pure Virgin!
By accepting my nature He freed Adam from his ancient curse. *
Unceasingly we magnify you as the Mother of God.
Rejoice, O celestial joy! *
Rejoice, O Lady, the protection, the intercessor, and salvation of our souls.

Hymn of St. Simeon

Lord, now you are letting Your servant depart in peace, according to Your word, for my eyes have seen Your salvation which You have prepared before the face of all people; a light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of Your people Israel.
