And the Days Following*

O Apostle John, speaker of Deity, the beloved of Christ our God, hasten to deliver your people powerless in speech, for He on Whose bosom you lean accepts you as an intercessor. Beseech Him, therefore, to disperse the darkness of ignorance and pray for peace and great mercies to be shown upon us.

Interested in Offering Feedback on Poetry and Prose?

Allison Boyd Justus is preparing a manuscript for potential publication and would like to build a team of interested "beta readers" - people who can read and offer feedback on selections of poetry and prose over the coming months. Subject matter includes perspectives of women in scripture and in modern church environments (Protestant and Orthodox), unheard voices, faith and doubt, and theology/spirituality pertaining to non-human creation. Commitment will be manageable (perhaps 1-3 poems at a time), and schedule logistics will be determined once we have a group together. Please let Allison know by the end of the month if you're interested! 931-265-4356 / alliboyd@gmail.com

Update on Helen Gillquist

Helen and I are home from her testing in Seattle - you may check out her Caring Bridge page for updates. Thank you for your prayers and encouragement. Helen will stay with us for a week before going back to her apartment. I am looking for someone to be with her so I can go to appointments for myself and for some respite (run errands etc.) it would be good to set up a visitation schedule while she continues to recover at her home. Please contact me if you are willing to help. - Jennifer Gillquist

THE SYNAXARION

All Saints – 1st Sunday after Pentecost

On June 15, in the Holy Orthodox Church, we commemorate the Holy Prophet Amos; Apostles Achaikos, Stephen and Fortunatos of the Seventy; Venerable Jerome of Bethlehem and Augustine, bishop of Hippo; Jonah, metropolitan of Moscow; and Martyr Lazarus, the Serbian prince.

On this day, the Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate the Feast of All Saints who shone forth throughout the whole world, North and South, East and West.

Verses

All the friends and followers of the Lord do we praise.

Though we cannot mention them all, they will all be remembered.

David the Prophet and king, who revered the beloved of God, and respected them because of his great piety, said in the Psalms, “How precious are Thy beloved unto me, O God.” And the Apostle Paul, in his Epistle to the Hebrews, recounted the lives of the saints, when he wrote, “Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us.” Therefore, as Orthodox Christians, we honor the beloved saints of God, respecting them as keepers of God’s commandments, shining examples of virtue and benefactors of humanity. We commemorate all the holy ones every year on this day, as the list of saints ever increases, even though some of their names escape us. Nevertheless, we honor them for their piety and strive to imitate their good works.

By the intercessions of Your immaculate Mother, O Christ God, and of all Your Saints from all ages, have mercy and save us, since You alone are good and the Lover of mankind. Amen.
