And the Days Following

O Apostle John, speaker of Deity, the beloved of Christ our God, hasten to deliver your people powerless in speech, for He on Whose bosom you lean accepts you as an intercessor. Beseech Him, therefore, to disperse the darkness of ignorance and pray for peace and great mercies to be shown upon us.

THE SYNAXARION

Pentecost

On this day, the seventh Sunday after Pascha, we celebrate the holy Feast of Pentecost.

Verses

*In a violent wind Christ distributes the Divine Spirit;
In the form of fiery tongues unto the Apostles;
In one great day, the Spirit was poured forth upon the Fishermen.*

On this day - the fiftieth day after Great and Holy Pascha - we commemorate the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the holy Disciples and Apostles in the form of tongues of fire. Numbering about 120, they who followed the Master gathered in Jerusalem in the upper room of a house to await the Lord's promise to send the Holy Spirit. At about the third hour of the day, there came a sound from Heaven as that of a mighty rushing wind, and it filled the house. Then there appeared to them divided tongues, as of fire, and one sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, not with the languages of their ancestors, but with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. When the sound of the rushing wind occurred, a large crowd of people gathered around and became confused, because everyone heard the disciples speak in his own language. The Apostle Peter raised his voice and explained what had happened and 3,000 people joined the Church on this, the day of its birth. Three important things take place on the Feast of Pentecost: the coming of the Holy Spirit into the world, the fulfillment of the promise of Jesus Christ, and the completion of the undefiled hope of the Apostles.

By the intercessions of the Holy Apostles, O Christ our God, have mercy on us. Amen.
