Tone 5

GREAT VESPERS - SATURDAY EVENING

DEACON: Bless, Father.

PRIEST: Blessed is our God always now and ever and unto ages of ages.

PEOPLE: Amen.

“Come Let Us Worship...”

Psalm 104

Bless the Lord, O my soul! O Lord You are very great: / You are clothed with honor and majesty, / Who cover Yourself with light as with a garment, / Who stretch out the heavens like a curtain.

He lays the beams of His upper chambers in the waters, / Who makes the clouds His chariot, / Who walks on the wings of the wind, / Who makes His angels spirits, His ministers a flame of fire.

You Who laid the foundations of the earth, / so that it should not be moved forever, / You covered it with the deep as with a garment; / the waters stood above the mountains.

At Your rebuke they fled; / at the voice of Your thunder they hastened away. / They went up over the mountains; they went down into the valleys, / to the place which You founded for them.

You have set a boundary that they may not pass over, / that they may not return to cover the earth. / He sends the springs into the valleys, / which flow among the hills.

They give drink to every beast of the field; / the wild donkeys quench their thirst. / By them the birds of the heavens have their habitation; / they sing among the branches.

He waters the hills from His upper chambers; / the earth is satisfied with the fruit of Your works.

He causes the grass to grow for the cattle, / and vegetation for the service of man, / that he may bring forth food from the earth, / and wine that makes glad the heart of man, oil to make his face shine, / and bread which strengthens man's heart.

The trees of the Lord are full of sap, / the cedars of Lebanon which He planted, / where the birds make their nests; / the stork has her home in the fir trees.

The high hills are for the wild goats; / the cliffs are a refuge for the rock badgers.

He appointed the moon for the seasons; / the sun know its going down. / You made darkness, and it is night, / in which all the beasts of the forest creep about.

The young lions roar after their prey, / and seek their food from God. / When the sun arises, they gather together / and lie down in their dens.

Man goes out to his work / and to his labor until the evening. / O Lord, how manifold are Your works! / In wisdom You have made them all.

The earth is full of Your possessions / – this great and wide sea, / in which are innumerable teeming things, / living things both small and great.

There the ships sail about and there is that Leviathan / which You have made to play there. / These all wait for You, / that You may give them their food in due season.

What You give them they gather in; / You open Your hand, they are filled with good. / You hide Your face, they are troubled; / You take away their breath, they die and return to their dust.

You send forth Your Spirit, they are created; / and You renew the face of the earth. / May the glory of the Lord endure forever; / may the Lord rejoice in His works.

He looks on the earth, and it trembles; / He touches the hills, and they smoke.

I will sing to the Lord as long as I live; / I will sing praise to my God while I have my being. / May my meditation be sweet to Him; / I will be glad in the Lord.

May sinners be consumed from the earth, / and the wicked be no more. / Bless the Lord, O my soul! / Praise the Lord!

The sun knows its going down. / You make darkness and it is night. / O Lord, how manifold are Your works! / In wisdom You have made them all.

READER: Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.

“O Lord, I Cry...” – Tone 5

Opening Psalm Verses - Psalm 141:1, 2 (LXX 140)

O Lord, I cry out unto You, hear me! Hear me, O Lord. O Lord, I cry out to You, hear me. Give ear to my voice when I cry out, when I cry out to You. Hear me, O Lord.

Let my prayer be set forth before You as incense, and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice. Hear me, O Lord.

Set a guard, O Lord over my mouth; keep watch o'er the door of my lips.

Do not incline my heart to any evil thing, to practice wicked works with men who work iniquity; and do not let me eat of their delicacies.

Let the righteous strike me; it shall be a kindness, and let him reprove me; it shall be as excellent oil. Let not my head refuse it, for still my prayer is against the deeds of the wicked.

Their judges are overthrown by the sides of the cliff and they hear my words for they are sweet. Our bones are scattered at the mouth of the grave, as when one plows and breaks up the earth.

But my eyes are upon You, O God the Lord; in You I take refuge; do not leave my soul destitute.

Keep me from the snares which they have laid for me, and from the traps of the workers of iniquity. Let the wicked fall into their own nets, while I escape safely.

Psalm 142 (LXX 141)

I cry out to the Lord with my voice; with my voice to the Lord I make my supplication.

I pour out my complaint before Him; I declare before Him my trouble.

When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then You knew my path. In a way in which I walk they have secretly set a snare for me.

Look on my right hand and see, for there is no one who acknowledges me; refuge has failed me; no one cares for my soul.

I cried out to You, O Lord. I said, "You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living.

Attend to my cry, for I am brought very low; deliver me from my persecutor^s for they are stronger than I."

Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise Your name.

(Tone 5) – Resurrection

By Your precious Cross, O Christ, You have put the devil to shame. By Your Resurrection, You have blunted the sting of sin and saved us from the gates of death. We glorify You, the only-begotten One.

Christ was led as a sheep to the slaughter in order to grant resurrection to the human race. The princes of hell were frightened by this, for the gates of sorrow were lifted. Christ, the King of Glory, had entered, saying to those in chains: "Go forth!" And to those in darkness: "Come to the light!"

Psalm 130 (LXX 129)

O great wonder! The Creator of the invisible suffered in the flesh in His love for mankind and rose again immortal. Come, O sons of nations, let us worship Him! And delivered from error by His compassion, we have learned to sing of one God in three Persons!

We offer You our evening worship, O never setting Light, Who came in these last days to the world in the flesh, and Who even descended to hell to dispel its darkness. You have revealed the light of Resurrection to the nations. Glory to You, O Lord and Giver of light!

We glorify the Leader of our salvation: By His Resurrection from the dead, the world was saved from deceit. The assembly of angels rejoices as the deceit of demons is overthrown! Fallen Adam rejoices as the devil falls.

The guards were instructed by the lawless ones: "Hide the rising of Christ, take money and say: 'The body was stolen from the tomb while we were asleep.'" But who has heard of a body being stolen, a body embalmed and naked with its grave clothes left behind in the tomb? Do not be deceived, O people; study the words of the prophets and understand: Christ is the Redeemer of the world and all powerful!

(Tone 4) – Archangel Michael

With a dazzling bright radiance, O Archangel Michael, chief captain of the powers on high, you have been revealed as the messenger of the threefold Sun of the Godhead. You cry out, rejoicing with the heavenly powers: Holy is the Father! God the Father in the heights; Holy is the coeternal Word! Without beginning; Holy also is the Divine and Holy Spirit: one glory, one majesty, one nature and power and one God!

For with the Lord there is mercy, and with Him is abundant redemption. And He shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

With a dazzling bright radiance, O Archangel Michael, chief captain of the powers on high, you have been revealed as the messenger of the threefold Sun of the Godhead. You cry out, rejoicing with the heavenly powers: Holy is the Father! God the Father in the heights; Holy is the coeternal Word! Without beginning; Holy also is the Divine and Holy Spirit: one glory, one majesty, one nature and power and one God!

Psalm 117 (LXX 116)

O praise the Lord, all you Gentiles! Laud Him, all you peoples!

O Michael, foremost of the angels, your appearance is like fire and your beauty miraculous! You traverse creation in your immaterial nature, fulfilling the sovereign will of the Maker of all things, by your might you are known as all powerful: and you have made the church dedicated to you become a well-spring of help and a source of healing.

For His merciful kindness is great t'ward us and the truth of the Lord endures forever.

As is written in the Scriptures, O Lord, You make Your angels spirit and Your ministers a flaming fire. You have revealed Michael to be the leader of the archangels. He fulfills Your divine commands, O Word, and cries out with a great voice the awesome and thrice-holy hymn of praise unto Your glory with fear and trembling.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit

(Tone 6) – Archangel Michael

Rejoice with us, all you angelic hosts, for the great supreme commander and our intercessor, the great archangel captain Michael, sanctifies this holy day as he appears in a wondrous fashion in his holy temple. Let us praise him as is due, and cry out to him: Shelter us under your wings, O Michael, the great Archangel.

Now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.

(Tone 5) – Resurrection

The sign of the Virgin bride who knew not wedlock was revealed in the Red Sea, for there Moses divided the waters, and here Gabriel assists in the miracle. There, Israel crossed the deep without getting wet and now the Virgin has given birth to Christ without seed. The sea remained impassable after the passing of Israel and the blameless Virgin remained virgin after giving birth to Emanuel. Therefore, O Eternal God, Who were before eternity, and Who appeared on earth as man, have mercy upon us.

An Excerpt from the Seventh Prayer

PRIEST: O Master, Bestower of all good things, may we, being moved to compunction on our beds, call to remembrance Your holy name in the night, that enlightened by meditation on Your commandments, we may rise in joyfulness of soul to glorify Your goodness, offering up prayers and supplications to Your tender love for our own sins and for those of all Your people, whom You visit in mercy, through the intercessions of the holy Theotokos.

For You are a good God and love mankind, and unto You we ascribe glory: to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

PEOPLE: Amen.

PRIEST: Peace be to all.

PEOPLE: And to your spirit.

The Prayer with Heads Bowed

DEACON: Let us bow our heads to the Lord.

PEOPLE: To You, O Lord.

PRIEST: O Lord, our God, Who bowed the heavens and came down for the salvation of mankind, look upon Your servants and Your inheritance; for to You, the fearful Judge, Who love mankind, have Your servants bowed their heads, and submissively inclined their necks, not awaiting help from men, but entreating Your mercy and looking confidently for Your salvation. Guard them at all times, both during this present evening and in the approaching night, from every enemy, from all adverse powers of the devil, and from vain thoughts and evil imaginations.

Blessed and glorified be the might of Your kingdom: of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

PEOPLE: Amen.

Aposticha: Tone 5

We magnify You in songs of praise, *

O incarnate Christ and Savior!

By accepting the cross and death for our sake,
as the Lord and Lover of mankind

You overthrew the gates of hell, * and rose on the third day saving our souls!

The Lord is King, He is clothed with majesty. The Lord is clothed with strength and has girded Himself.

By being pierced in the side, O Lover of mankind,
You have poured out drops of life and salvation for all.

By accepting death in the flesh, *

You have granted us immortality.

You have freed us by being placed in a tomb,
and as God have resurrected us in glory with Yourself!
Glory to You, *

O Lord and Lover of mankind!

For He established the world which shall not be shaken.

Your crucifixion and descent into hell are awesome, O Lover of mankind!

You have captured it, releasing the ancient prisoners! *

You have opened Paradise and given it to us!

Grant purification of sins to us who glorify Your third day Resurrection!

Make us worthy of Paradise, *

and save us, O Lover of mankind!

Holiness adorns Your house, O Lord, forever.

For our sake, You accepted death in the flesh,
to rise from the dead on the third day!

Heal us from our earthly passions, and restore us from our evil transgressions; *
and save us, O Lover of mankind!

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.

(Tone 8)

As captain of the angelic hosts, deliver us from every need and affliction, grievous sin and sickness,
who sing your praises and entreat you, *

O glorious captain, Michael.

As a bodiless power, you look clearly upon the Immaterial One.

You shine with the unapproachable radiance of the Lord of glory,

Who for the sake of His love for us, * assumed our flesh and became incarnate of the Virgin to save mankind.

Hymn of St. Simeon

Lord, now you are letting Your servant depart in peace, according to Your word, for my eyes have seen Your salvation which You have prepared before the face of all people; a light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of Your people Israel.

In Your scriptures, O Lover of mankind, You have said that there is great rejoicing among the angels in heaven over one repentant sinner. Therefore, we who are in our sins, unceasingly and boldly implore You, the only sinless One, and send us Searcher of hearts, to take pity on us, as the all-merciful One, and send us compunction and pardon. For before You, O Master, stands the Archangel Michael ever interceding for us, since he is the head of the angelic hosts.
